

medConfidential DPDI documents

medConfidential has written a short one page quick sheet on the DPDI bill, two pages on the effects of the Bill on/around NHS data; plus a longer consolidated briefing on the “data” bits of the Bill with a separate probing amendments document, plus a stand alone briefing on the Identity part (there’s one probing amendment, and a not stand part option)

17/11/23 Documents:

- Effects of the Bill on/around NHS data
- One page quick sheet on the DPDI bill
- Longer consolidated briefing
- Probing amendments
- Stand alone briefing on the Identity part

These documents were originally written for the June 2022 briefing, updated for the continuation of the Bill in early 2023, and then updated for the continuation Bill in November 2023. Some clause numbers may have been missed as they changed, and we’ll note any major corrections below.

26/11/23: new clauses for Commons Report – Open Banking helps creeps/landlords abuse tenants

20/2/2024: We strongly support the amendment to Schedule 5 recognising in law that a contract is not necessarily sufficient to ensure remedies are available for data protection breaches, as laid by Lord Bethell, Lord Kirkhope and Lord Clement-Jones.
